Leicester, Mass.ts

June 25. 1860.

Dear friend Webb,

To your kind Anti-Slavery heart, and to your genuine Irish hospitality, and those of your dear family, let me have the pleasure to introduce Miss Mattie Griffith, formerly of Kentucky. I need not tell you how she bravely flung wealth away from her, rather than hold her fellow beings in Slavery. I am sure it will be your pleasure to aid her in any way in your power, and we especially hope that her health may be greatly benefited by her visit to your country.

Sincerely yr. friend

Samuel May, Jr.
